This is QUEST's Publication Scheme on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

QUEST's Board of Directors is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is either available for you on our website to download and print off or available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner and available from <https://ico.org.uk/media/for-organisations/documents/1153/model-publication-scheme.pdf>

2. Aims and Objectives

QUEST's mission statement 'Unlocking potential' emphasises that we are committed to valuing and nurturing each child as an individual who will achieve their best and develop an enthusiasm for lifelong learning. Our vision is for the children in our schools to grow into responsible, caring and fulfilled adults who actively and positively contribute to the society in which they live. We are committed to raising standards, values and self-esteem for all those involved with our schools through cultivating secure, yet exciting environments that are positive, supportive, stimulating and enriching and this publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

3. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme and are organised into four broad topic areas:

School Prospectus – information published in the school prospectus.

Director's Documents – information published in Board of Director documents and explains who we are and what we do.

Pupils & Curriculum – information about policies and procedures that relate to pupils and the school curriculum.

Policies and other information related to the schools and the Trust - information about policies that relate to the schools and the Trust in general and explains what our priorities are and how we are doing. It also specifies the information held in lists and registers required by law and the services we offer.

4. How to request information

If you require a hard copy of any of the documents within the scheme, please contact the individual schools or the Trust either in person, by telephone, e-mail, fax or letter. Contact details are set out below or you can visit our websites.
